

Best Student Poster Award @TSPPM-2021

Rules for Participants

The IEEE Sensors Council Italy Chapter recognizes distinguished posters presented by student at the Second International Summer School on Technologies and Signal Processing in Perinatal Medicine (TSPPM-2021) that will be held virtually, from Sardinia, Italy, on July, 16-23 2018, through a presentation of an Award for the “Best Student Poster”.

The Award consists in a Certificate and one prize of 100 € to the author of the Best Abstract and related Poster, who has the requisites indicated below.

Only authors with the following requisites are eligible for the award:

- be a Member of IEEE;
- be a student at the time the paper was submitted;
- be the first author of the abstract associated to the poster.

The award recipient will be selected by a Committee formed by the Chapter treasurer and three lecturers of the conference with no conflicts of interests.

The Award Committee is composed by

- 1) Danilo Pani (University of Cagliari, Italy, School Chair, without the right to vote)
- 2) Rik Vullings (Eindhoven University of Technology, The Netherland)
- 3) Reza Sameni (Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA, USA)
- 4) Petar Djuric (Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY, USA)

The winner will be notified and awarded the last day of the school.

All the decisions of the Board are final. No ex-aequo is allowed.
